1.1.91
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, September 4, 2003
www.NewCovenant.me

1. Ted, I love questions. I love questions. I love the inquisitive seeker who will come to Me and ask Me what he wants to know, what she wants to know, what they want to learn about. Oh Ted, I love My school and My school is unlike any school you know about. My school transcends the physical concepts, the lectures, the orators, and the exemplifiers, and goes straight to the heart, the heart, goes to the heart, and Ted, through the heart, through the heart-being of the seeker who will let Me.

2. Am I a father who fails to answer the sincere inquiries of his children? Come now – how rude, how crude, how small, how demeaning, how un-reproducing. Ted, I answer and I always answer.

3. So many don't wait for My answer and fail to see and grasp and comprehend My answer when it comes to them. Ted, I relationship people. I bring people people, for I operate through people—My body—My body who will let Me.

4. My school is not just hear-say-do, My school is hear-see-feel-become. My school is intense, intense, and unlike your order of structure.

5. I am dynamic and I arrange great and mighty powerful truths to be revealed to the sincere seeker—those who inquire of Me and let Me teach them. Oh how I want to teach, teach more, more and more.

6. I relationship My people. I resource My people but so often they mistake and discombobulate those I bring them. So often they try to bring down the very ones I sent them to bring them up. Oh My people, My people, My people.

7. I have so many people. I have resources unlimited. I have relationships to make the mighty shake – yet so little and so dim are the eyes of the spirit of so many.

8. My school, My schools are many and cross all boundaries of what you think are schools. Ted, open to Me and understand My schooling and how and why and who I choose to go through My schools of schools to mature and know Me.

9. I choose Ted, I choose those who I give to, I choose those who I relationship so freely across all boundaries of things thought boundaries. I relationship and resource and I bring about My design, in freedom, to those who will choose Me to let Me choose them.

10. I love you and I love the continuous learner of Me who will seek Me and listen to Me and grasp what so freely I give them—to embrace Me—to then give Me to those around them.

11. My schools, My schools come through you for you will help many graduate into the beginning points of where I only can take them—their hand in Mine, Mine, Mine alone, with the only light on their path being Me, Me, Me alone—and in darkness and light, darkness of times and thoughts and battles and warfare—light, Me, alongside, alongside, Ted, within, inside, empowering, releasing freedom, increasing freedom, power and glory, and dominion over darkness.

12. Schools—you want more specifics about schools to answer the questions of those who've come to you lately, all asking about the schools you are starting, are starting, are starting, now, now, now, Oh Ted—now, you are starting now.

13. Me, Me, of Me, represent Me, and I will represent Me and I will represent you to My Mine who let Me bring them through you to Me, for so weak and timid and shy and correct-not, will be strengthened and fed and nourished and healed and come through your schools empowered to walk in poverty-permeated with honor and glory and as a drink offering – as well as walk in halls and palaces of grandeur—marble, glass and brass and ornate carvings of gold and craftsmanship displays of creativity and innovation and works of art valued greatly.

14. Oh Ted, roots, roots, values, values displayed, hands-on, experientially experiencing the teaching of My teachers who are willing to embrace new paradigms of transmitting Me to Mine for transformation of students and teachers alike—simultaneously—learning from each other—simultaneously and synergistically—each empowering the other one—each empowering each other—to transcend the normal hum-drum of lecture which is retained so little, and acted upon less.

15. Ted, My name is Synergy and freedom do I give My disciples who will but come and let Me flow through them in My simplicity of grace and glory and power, and Ted, dominion and discernment which can come only experientially, exponentially, at My knee, in My classroom, My classroom, which for many, many who will choose Me, My big world.

16. Get ready for paradigm shifting of magnanimous proportions—I am propelling and propagating from seeds in the hearts of My Mine who know change is coming.

17. Across all boundaries—synergy, synergy, Me, Mine, in power and glory and meekness and discernment and power to permeate the poverty-permeated with truth and blessing and power, power, power—ability to walk and talk and effect change at levels unprecedented. Ted, common place, miracles—My natural state—common place, for all who choose to let Me flow through them in unrestricted, unconstricted paradigms of power, power, power.

18. Schools Ted, schools of Me—with generals and admirals of Me in every color and garb of things important to them—but not held above Me.

19. Oh, I am Freedom and freedomize all the freedomizable who will let Me. And I will birth through all the birthable-through, of Me and Mine, and new schools of thought which free understandings long held captive by thoughts not of Me, but I give wings to now.

20. Oh Ted, the instructable—instruct.
The teachable—teach.
Technology utilize and implore the energetic young, and old, who will let Me synergize their paradigms of power new—into forces for Me, who will walk in freedom—freedom personified, personified in Me, and then personified in them.

Prayer – surrender—all starts here.
Buildings come, online comes, faculty comes.

Oh Ted, all you need—is provided.
Overabundanced you are—you walk in now. See Me, see it—all provision, see All-Provision beside you, in you, leading you—Me, Me, Me.

I will take you to other schools and connect and empower all in Me as you establish the un-establishable university of Me—and universities of Me—Me—all over My earth, in Me, of Me.

21. And those who adhere to standards only set by others, and embrace Me not in newness of power and synergy – allow, enjoy, appreciate, and let them operate in all the freedom and wisdom they choose to embrace.

22. My generals, My admirals, My warriors who've been at My knee arise to facilitate the establishment of the establishable-only-by-Me, hearing My voice and moving forth in action and initiating communication and tangible actions bringing Me about, in synergy with you, in My big world.

23. Appreciate the unappreciate-able—those who hate you and envy you and disparage you – love them and always considerate be.

Big, big, big, not small, never be small.
You are called and you are considerate of all—in meekness, discernment, on powerful foundations of power.

Look not at outward circumstances which loom to represent reality—but focus on Me in My chambers and My words and My people I bring you, and I bring you to.

24. Go to Argentina—this is the trip I awoke you to welcome. I awoke you in Russia long ago—to speak and seed into you receptivity to this voyage across waters unknown—into waters unknown by you before—but Ted, mapped out by Me.

25. Connecting you I am with generals of intercession who know what intercession is – and you will teach them and they will teach you and present will I be, and synergistically transform all I can—all who will let Me, into schools for Me—in paradigms of power – not of concrete and doctrine, but of Me in fluid flowing rivers of Me – creating through My creatable, and loving every minute of it.

26. Embrace the embraceable and put them to work, following your counsel to embrace Me and My ways and My words – their pens and their tablets and their chambers of silence, where they can hear and see and lovers be—with Me.

27. Quell the qualms of My people who panic and fear and paralyzed seem, and empower them in Me so I can freedomize fearlessly—them fearlessly—freely—in Me.

28. Walk in honor, power and dominion over sin and fear and intimidation of others thought-high—of My realm and of not My realm. Me Ted, My responsibility, My charge, your stewardship, your servanthood, your open heart—to My open heart.

29. Schools come and now form with leaders coming to you to initiate dialog to structure form, across all boundaries of race, of creed, of background, Ted—My values, Me—serve My values and My words and My truth and My freedom and experientially synergistically I will form the relationships that will create creators of Me in halls of power and poverty-destroying prowess of Me, Me, Me, for My Mine.

30. Oh Ted, how beautiful, how lovely, are the feet of those who bring good news—freedom, synergy, empowerment, timidity-smashing freedom to allow Me to operate in My design in My Mine of Me.

31. Go and sin no more, but synergize My people.
32. Doubt no more Ted—empowered you are, by Me, of Me, for Me, for Mine.
33. Enjoy, enjoy, powerful be and submit only to Me, Me, Me, and in Me you'll see Me and hear Me and do what I want done, and become My design in fullness for you, for yours, for yours, for all those I give you.

34. Oh freedom. Oh how desired your position is—thought-desired—but not price paid.
Tell them to pay the price—time, openness, willingness, surrender, for grace, power, freedom, joy, and oh so much of Me—more, more, more Me, more Me.

35. Synergy comes, Synergy comes, Synergy connects.
I am connecting you now, this day, this way, this trip—Argentina is in your future often, and Latin America—and areas you have not thought would be major areas of your focus.
Your focus is Me and I am I am.
You are.

36. I appreciate you and I appreciate every individual who reads these words and pursues Me with greater passion and lets their emotions open to Me, and synergize them I will, and relationship them with you and others, in My big world.

37. Schools, commerce, commerce, schools, organizations of Me, Me, Me.
Thank you, thank you, thank you.

38. Order your day to include schoolwork—daily, daily, daily.
I will teach, I will teach, I will teach.

Technology comes. Masters come.

39. Craftsmen and women of immense skill and dedication and devotion to Me come. Initiating them I am—bringing them to you—to free, to empower, crushing paradigms that have held them back for centuries—freedom, power, joy, laughter, somber some but little-little—realization of revelation and resources and role models and Ted, results, results, results of Me, of Me, Me, them giving Me freedom to give them freedom.

40. Tell them, shout it, whisper it, permeate it permanently upon their hearts, how I value their words, their word, and how they value My Word, My words, Me, in personified glory, allowing Me to be Me.

41. Schools, schools, schools.
Ready, aim, fire.
Fire of Me—across all waters.
Navigating you I am.
Have fun, enjoy, and make all with you smile, smile, smile and see Me.

Get them to look into the mirror—and see Me.
Get them to look in their mirror—and see Me—
See Me beside them, with them, in them, as My creation,
As My embodiment of My joy and laughter and creativity.
Shattering the paradigms of depression and inhibition and second-best, I am.
I am freeing My people and I am doing it experientially in synergy with all who will let Me.

42. Embrace Me, embrace Me, hug Me more.
Walk with Me more where you see and feel and acknowledge My presence so freely, and enjoy our walks and talks and trips and meetings and friendships, and

43. Our rising up, and our laying down,
Our work, and our rest,
Our work, and our play,
Our rest, and our play,
Our times of freedomizing in synergy and our times of solitude, together,
Just, simply, being together,
With nothing having to be said, just together,
In each other's presence, happily,
Cognizant of our being with each other.

44. Represent Me in meekness and power you will walk in personified.
Meekness, meekness, meekness.
Go and glow and turn on those without Me, so I can glow them.
Their path is bright—only in Me.

45. Thanks you. Schools form—curriculumizers now even formulate how to teach and convey and experientially transform My students in these words, My words, My Word—all of life, all of Me, all of them, and Ted, all of you.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.